

May.
Hello, summer! It's the month for planning vacations, graduation parties, and of course, Mother's Day.

MON 1

May Day. Leave a bouquet of flowers at a loved one's door. For that special someone, check out the flowers at www.jane-carroll.com.

FEET TREAT

Ready your tootsies for flip-flop season with SugarBaby's super-easy pedicure kit. It includes foot soak, scrub, cream, and a pair of polka-dot sleep socks. $35. A matching cosmetic bag ($20-$30) is perfect for summer vacation. www.dramaqueenstyle.com.

WED 3

AngloMania, a celebration of British fashion (1976-2006), opens at The Metropolitan Museum of Art. Through September 4. www.metmuseum.org.

TUES 9-14

Brimfield Antique Show, one of our all-time favorites, welcomes 130,000 shoppers to 23 fields. Through the 14th. www.brimfieldshow.com.

SUN 14 ▲

Mother's Day. Treat Mom (there are 82 million in U.S.) to the best Oreos ever (chocolate-dipped). $19 for box of nine. www.goodfortunes.com.

CONGRATS TO GRADS!

It's graduation time! To create your own graduation party invitations, go to www.chealseapaper.com.

CHECK IT OUT!

Our redesigned Web site launches with new features and behind-the-scenes scoops. www.countryhome.com.

HIKE ONE, HIKE TWO

Plan your summer walking vacation. The Wayfarers hosts walks across Europe and the U.S. and covers all your needs. www.thewayfarers.com.

MON 29

Memorial Day. Go ahead and pull out your white pumps. Better yet, slip on a pair of cool metallic leather flip-flops from www.jcrew.com.
