

GREAT DEAL

1

2

3

4

1. You haven't tasted honey till you've tried Black Sage. $18; www.javannahbee.com

2. These delicately decorated chocolates are (almost) too pretty to eat. $25 a box; www.jinpatisserie.com

3. With Bionaturae's spaghetti, Lucini's vinegar and sauce, and Reston Lloyd's colander, a pasta-loving friend has all she needs. Pasta, $2.49, colander, $21.99; www.wholefoodmarket.com; vinegar, $8, sauce, $7.99; www.lucini.com

4. Know a child who loves to help in the kitchen? The Little Cook's Kit includes a pint-size apron and chef's hat. $25; www.sassafrasentertainment.com

5. This set of finger-lickin' sauces makes an ideal hostess gift. 12 Oaks, $29.95 for three; www.shonof.com

6. O Cassis vinegar is flavored with sweet black currants. $15 with gift tube; www.ooliveoil.com

7. Aficionados agree: Serendipity 3 World Famous Frozen Hot Chocolate tastes great. $9.99; www.shonof.com

8. Give the classic Oreo cookie, dressed for the holidays. $18.50 per box; www.poofoofun.com

CONTINUED

For Foodies

5

6

7

8

