

AMERICA'S #1 FAMILY MAGAZINE • PARENTS.COM • SEPTEMBER 2003

Parents

HELP YOUR BABY LEARN
TO TALK

End Separation Anxiety With Loving Goodbyes

Get Creative
Make Our Keepsake
Baby Books

Boy vs. Girl Babies

The Big Health Differences
You Should Know

"I Can Do It!"
Raise A Child Who Never Gives Up

By Lauren Guerrero
show & tell

FUN STUFF FOR A SUPER SEPTEMBER Little sculptors will love making clay in their favorite crayon colors with Crayola Dough. (Fun 4 All, $2 for 4) 2 Forms of My Scene dolls can use washable markers to personalize this trendy tee. (Limited Too, $22.50) 3 The Caribiner Calculator clips to your child's backpack or belt loop—a cool way to number-crunch. (Royal, $5) 4 Fun and functional, these adorable ice packs will keep your child's meals cool until lunchtime. (Munchkin, $2 each) 5 The Gigantic Personalized Fortune Cookie is a sweet way to announce a newborn's arrival. (Good Fortunes, $26.50) 6 These laminated-fabric lunch totes wipe clean in seconds. (icky Baby, $24 each) 7 In her new book, Jag, country singer LeAnn Rimes teaches tots how to overcome back-to-school fears. (E.F. Dutton for Penguin Putnam, $16) 8 Kids can carry their pencils in style with these groovy cases. (Todd Oldham for Target, $3 each) 9 Best Manners (Singing Barney and his video Barney's Best Manners: Your Invitation to Fun!) provide easy etiquette lessons. (Fisher-Price $15; HIT Entertainment, $15) 10 Send your preschooler on a bilingual adventure! Dora's Find It Two Ways backpack teaches preschoolers English and Spanish. (Fisher-Price, $20)